JOY OF MUSIC

Quartet boosts Young Friends symphony gathering.

The Young Friends of the Palm Beach Symphony mixed and mingled March 9 to benefit the symphony's music education programs throughout Palm Beach County.

More than 50 people gathered at Provident Jewelry to hear a Palm Beach Symphony string quartet play pop-song favorites.

Scott Diamant, Young Friends committee member and co-owner of Provident Jewelry, welcomed guests, while Phil Reagan, the Young Friends committee chair, toasted members and musicians on the current season.

The Young Friends of the Palm Beach Symphony supports the symphony's mission to create opportunities for music education in the-community through children's concerts, artist in residence instruction, instrumental needs and music library needs.
