Women and Children First!

Previous columns have mentioned the Young Friends of the Palm Beach Symphony and its mission to bring music to all children in the community. The primary event to support the Young Friends is the upcoming "All That Glitters" benefit on Monday, Feb. 19 in the Gold Room at The Breakers Palm Beach. In today's Fog of Fashion section, contributor Darcy Fogg shares style secrets and ideas for what to wear to the party.

During a photoshoot at Sant Ambroeus, I channeled Derek Zoolander for a day, highlighting looks from shops at The Royal, which generously sponsors "All That Glitters" with Sam Edelman. Joining the fun was my Notables predecessor, Lizzi Bickford, who will co-chair "All That Glitters" with J. Roby Penn, IV. We were lucky to have the talented Kathrine Lande styling us for the shoot. Katherine even stepped in front of the camera at the last minute. Photographer Nick Mele captures the spirited mood of "All That Glitters." I hope you'll join us on Feb. 19.

It is no coincidence that both charities featured in party snaps benefit women and children, exemplified by former first lady Laura Bush at the Nicklaus Children's Health Care Foundation luncheon. Laura Bush has long championed good causes. As the Chair of the Women's Initiative at the George W. Bush Institute, she continues her work on global health care, education reform, and supporting those who have served in America's military.

Mrs. Bush will appear as the guest speaker at the Shop the Day Away Luncheon on Feb. 21 to benefit Cancer Alliance of Help and Hope. The event will help cancer patients in Palm Beach County to ease the burden of emergency circumstances by providing financial support during the treatment period.

Love all! Delray Beach Open announces 2018 line up, featuring Juan Martin del Potro, Milos Raonic and The Bryan Brothers

The Delray Beach Open, the world's only 10-day tennis event consisting of ATP Champions Tour and ATP World Tour events, will take place Feb. 16-25 at the Delray Beach Stadium & Tennis Center.

The six-player ATP Champions Tour event (Feb. 16-18) will showcase legends of the game in an American vs. International format. Tennis Hall of Famer John McEnroe, former Delray Beach champion Mardy Fish, and Jan-Michael Gambill will square off against an international team made up of former Australian Open finalist and world No. 7 Fernando Gonzalez, former US Open finalist, and world No. 4 Greg Rusedski of Great Britain and Canada, and Boca Raton resident Jesse Levine of Canada.

The week-long ATP

Fernando Gonzalez

World Tour event follows (Feb. 19-25) and includes many of the world's top-ranked men's singles and doubles teams. This year's players include 2009 US Open champion Juan Martin del Potro of Argentina, 2017 US Open finalist Kevin Anderson, Canadian Milos Raonic, 2017 Cincinnati finalist Nick Kyrgios of Australia, 2017 Wimbledon semifinalist Sam Querrey, defending champion American Jack Sock, 18-year-old

"Next Gen" rising star Denis Shapovalov of Canada, and four-time Delray Beach Open doubles champions and fan favorites, the Bryan brothers.

Away from the tennis theater, guests enjoy live original music, a shopping bazaar, photo opportunities with the VolleyGirls, top-shelf dining and drinking, bean bag gardens, up-close interaction with ATP stars, children's activities and local art displays. Ticket options and packages range from courtside box seating and covered Veranda seats, while "Best Seats" put die-hard fans directly on the court with their favorite ATP players.

All That Glitters: Get the Look

Darcy Fogg
Fogg of Fashion

Between the “high season,” Valentine’s Day, and perfect weather all arriving at once, it is incumbent to celebrate. This Monday, the Palm Beach Symphony will host its 16th annual gala, including a special party by the Young Friends of the Palm Beach Symphony at The Breakers. The theme this year is “All That Glitters,” and Palm Beach will glow with sequins, sparkle, and splendor.

Young Friends of the Palm Beach Symphony Executive Committee Chair and Notables Editor Krystian von Speidel, Event Co-Chair and Director of Marketing for Sam Edelman, Lizzi Bickford, and committee member and celebrity stylist, Katherine Lande, recently hosted a preview at Saint Ambroeus to share some style inspirations. Here’s how to Get the Look.

Notables contributor Darcy Fogg is committed to demystifying the world of high style. In Fogg of Fashion you’ll find Darcy’s take on the best fashion, beauty and lifestyle in Palm Beach County, including unique spotlights, and exclusives. Read more at foggoffashion.com and follow her on Instagram @foggoffashion. Have something you think we should know about?
